What changed: Thu. Oct. 22 update (your Air Order edits)

Change	Detail
Script format (latest)	Playlist-management notes are gone from the right column. It is now Track history: release, credits, covers, chart and label facts. Release dates sit in their own bold column with the year; the small line gives single, album or EP and the parent album date. Booked Bay Area shows are marked LIVE in yellow on each row and listed by date after Set 6. Dates marked (verify) rest on one source.
Cut by you	Fontaines D.C. Six Shot Morning, Mimesis and Where Is Gone? (Happy For You stays), and Pulp The Trees. All four are out of the run of show and the Zookeeper CSV. Logged as not interested for 60 days.
Added inside the list	Nervebreakers My Girlfriend is a Rock, radio edit (#10), Loco Gringos Ain't No Corndogs (#15) and This Is Lorelei & MJ Lenderman Dancing in the Club, radio edit (#22). Set 2 is now Texas punk with Dallas added.
Your last six, placed where they fit	Set 1: Westside Cowboy (#6, after Yard Act) and Royal Blood (#9, last, before the Texas set). Set 7: Bauhaus (#37) and Consolidated (#38). Set 8: Stef Chura (#44, closes the slow set). Set 9: Dumb (#49, with the short rockers).
Reordered	Set 1 now follows your Air Order (Lex Walton first, Dummy after Yard Act). The Air Order on YouTube Music still lists the six at the end (positions 50 to 55); it was not changed.
Metadata	Labels and tags from Zookeeper where the library has the album (Loco Gringos 1089648, Bauhaus Mask 273046, Stef Chura Midnight 1135774, Consolidated 2866, Dumb 1148228). Web sources for the rest. Nervebreakers is on the library compilation Bloodstains Across Texas only (tag 487829); no tag used.
Still open	Triple Shot has four Damned tracks. Loco Gringos has no lyrics posted: listen first. Lorelei and Lenderman, Nervebreakers and Consolidated are radio edits on YTM: confirm the edits by ear (Lorelei original has fuck x2 in Verse 4).
